EXPERIENCE

Freelance -

Seocomponent.com

2022-9 - present

Working as a Frontend developer creating new pages and refactoring old code:

- Built new schema generators for various types of pages e.g.: Article, Event, Recipe , Job Posting ...
- Optimized the code by creating new reusable components and tools so to make creation of new generators easier
- Establishing a new context to share states between components seamlessly

PROJECTS

url-shortening

This is a Next.js project for making a url shortener website, by using a public Api that shorten urls, and with the help of localStorage all the urls shortened are saved. and the website was styled with TailwindCss

HTML5, Tailwind Css, Next.js, Typescript

Live Demo : <https://url-shortening-yzqm.vercel.app/>

Dynamic-job-listings

This is a react project to make a jobs listing page with dynamic filtering through local data and using context Api to handle global state, this was a Frontend Mentor project where I am supposed to follow provided design

HTML5, CSS3, Next.js, Context Api

Live Demo : <https://static-job-listings-polymahh.vercel.app/>

Ecommerce Product Page

This was a challenge from Frontend Mentor to build an e-commerce product page following the design provided. and to make it even better I used Next.js, this was a very good project to practice CSS3 and Context Api and getting familiar with Next.js
